Meeting the Challenges of Our Time

with Joan Sleight and John Bloom

All are welcome!

Tuesday, May 7 at 7 pm
at the Garden Room, Groh Farm, Wilton, NH

Please join us for an evening of conversation and exploration:

- How can our work with anthroposophy and Rudolf Steiner's ideas inform and support how we meet the world in service as individuals and in community?
- What is the connection between our inner work and daily experience within our work communities, economic activities, and meeting the social, technological, and ecological challenges that face us in our culture?
- Can we imagine an Anthroposophical Society of healing and invitation toward a more human-centered future?

Presented by the Anthroposophical Society in NH
and the Anthroposophical Society in America
