

Goetheanum | School of Spiritual Science
General Anthroposophical Section

May 21st, 2019

Dear Class Member,

We are writing to invite you most warmly to join us in London in late August to participate in a conference on the 19 Class Lessons which is jointly organised by the School of Spiritual Science at the Goetheanum and the Anthroposophical Society in Great Britain. It will take us through the journey of the 19 Class Lessons and enable us to experience a full overview of this path.

As an overall theme we will focus on the qualities and spiritual aspects of our personal destiny when we take the path of the 19 Class Lessons. In addition to the Lessons, which will be given as free renderings in English, there will be daily conversation groups, including a group for those for whom the Class Lessons may be new. There will also be a short daily eurythmy performance by Maren Stott, artistic director of West Midlands Eurythmy and a member of the Goetheanum Eurythmy Ensemble.

Staff at Rudolf Steiner House London will be happy to assist in finding affordable accommodation, in particular at London Regent's University, just seven minutes' walk through beautiful Regents Park, where the cost of accommodation and food is very favourable. There is no conference fee but a donation of approximately £100 would be much appreciated.

You will find more detailed information in the attached brochure, which also contains the booking form. If you would like to receive a paper copy of the brochure, or have any questions please contact Ilona Pimbert whose email address is below.

Members of the School of Spiritual Science from all corners of the world are heartily welcome to join us and we look forward to meeting many of you and working together.

With our warm greetings,

Joan Sleigh,

Executive Council at the Goetheanum

Claus-Peter Röh,

Goetheanum Leadership

Marjatta van Boeschoten, General Secretary Anthroposophical Society in Great Britain.
